

RESOLUTION 23-200

December 12, 2023

RESOLUTION AUTHORIZING THE HEALTH COMMISSIONER TO ENTER INTO A CONTRACT WITH VECTOR DISEASE CONTROL INTERNATIONAL, INC AND ANY PARTICIPATING POLITICAL SUBDIVISION FOR INTEGRATED MOSQUITO MANAGEMENT SERVICES (TOTAL EXPENSE: $0.00)

WHEREAS, with the introduction of West Nile virus and other arboviruses in the United States in 2002 and the continuing threat of other mosquito-borne diseases, Franklin County Public Health has adopted a comprehensive Integrated Mosquito Management (IMM) plan;

WHEREAS, the IMM has steadily grown to include more sophisticated planning, surveillance, and control activities, which requires greater expertise and management;

WHEREAS, Vector Disease Control International Inc., (VDCI) has submitted a proposal demonstrating the expertise and capability to manage the program and execute operations on behalf of Franklin County Public Health for the year 2024-2026 with the option to extend the contract for two 1-year periods;

WHEREAS, this resolution supports Environmental Health Division Strategic Goal of vector disease surveillance and prevention;

WHEREAS, the following jurisdictions are included in the proposal for IMM and may request during this contract period to participate and pay for services as outlined in the contract; and
