

RESOLUTION 24-076

May 14, 2024

RESOLUTION AUTHORIZING THE HEALTH COMMISSIONER TO ENTER INTO A CONTRACT WITH THE FRANKLIN COUNTY BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS TO ADMINISTER FUNDING TO RESTORING OUR OWN THROUGH TRANSFORMATION (ROOTT) (REVENUE OF $425,000)

WHEREAS, ROOTT is a reproductive justice organization dedicated to addressing concerns and needs of Black women and Black families surrounding maternal and infant health through the provision of doula services and training, research, education, and consultation;

WHEREAS, with funding provided by the Franklin County Board of Commissioners (FCBOC), ROOTT delivers its perinatal doula service model to approximately 25 Black Families annually in Franklin County;

WHEREAS, Franklin County Public Health (FCPH) as a part of this collaboration, is responsible for administrative oversight to the FCBOC and the provision of indirect project support;

WHEREAS, this partnership aligns with FCPHs community health improvement plan to improve maternal and infant health through the elimination of health disparities.
